We are the teachers,
We hold high the lamp of learning,
And pray, as we walk
among youth,
That its light will disperse
The shadows of illiteracy.
A bit of light,
Much patience,
And some gentle cultivat-
tion
Will cause a sprout
To grow and mature.

TWELVE YEAR STUDENTS

These students have planned, joked, and studied together for 12 years. Left to right, STANDING: Wilma Peacock, Malinda Sims, Bob Holland, Marcele Potts, Bob Olvey, Linda Barnard, Mary Ann Trees, Gerald Titus, Rhea Martin, Donna VanDuyn. SEATED: Linda Tague, Patty Bowyer, Nemuel Albea, Mike O'Neal, Jack Frazier, Phil VanDuyn, Steve Hine, Danny Dunlavy, Ronnie Wilson, Richard Dunlavy, Dale Bradley.

THE CLASS OF '59

A few short years we've been together,
As one group I guess you'd say,
But now the time is nearing
For us to be on our way.

The friends we've made since we've been here
Always we'll remember,
And in our hearts the memories
Will forever linger.

We'll remember the things we learned
With the teacher's help each day,
But soon there'll be no teachers
Just experience they say.

Now that the time has really come
For handshakes and goodbyes,
We feel just a little sad
As we begin to realize-

That we Seniors now are leaving
Our high school days behind.
So farewell, farewell, dear Central,
From the Class of '59.

JUNIOR PLAY

SENIOR PLAY

STANDING-left to right-Robert Olvey, Marcele Potts, Linda Massie, Lillie Smith, Allen Ward, Malinda Sims, Steve Ricks, Della LaRue, Jean Raines, Phillip VanDuyn, Mary Lou Fuller, Bob Holland, Linda Barnard, Rhea Martin, Patty Bowyer, Sharon Madison, Jim Phillips, and Murlyn Chambers. SEATED: Steve Hines, David Apple, and Judy Murphy. KNEELING: Mary Ann Trees, Shirley Koeniger, Janice Jack, Peggy Bass, Glennetta Murphy, Marlin Bowyer, Judy Chambers, Marilyn Roe, Janice Blackford, Wilma Peacock, Dean Phillips, and Linda Tague.

Prom Queen

The Class of '59 has produced its share of leaders.

Five members excelled scholastically---Jerry Wilson and Linda Tague have only A's and B's on the record of their four high school years, Steve Ricks has two C's, Malinda Sims, 3 C's and Marcele Potts, 5 C's.

Jim Phillips, Steve Hine, and Marcele Potts were chosen, because of leadership ability, to represent Hancock Central at Girls' and Boys' State.

Dave Apple and Allen Ward were absent from school fewer days over a twelve year period than any other members of the class. Dave missed five days, and Allen two days.

Malinda Sims was voted Junior-Senior Prom Queen in her junior year. This was the first Prom for Hancock Central. The juniors and their guests went by bus to the Pittinger Student Center on the Ball State Campus for a banquet and an evening of dancing. Miss Chambers and Mr. Scotten were the class sponsors.

Dave Apple, who was chosen by the faculty as Junior Rotarian, was a guest of the Greenfield Rotary Club each Thursday at noon through the month of January.

The class elected Linda Tague as a candidate for the D.A.R. Citizenship Award.

All interested senior girls were given a fifty minute test on homemaking knowledge and attitudes. Rhea Martin scored highest in her own group and is a candidate for State Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Twelve students from the Class of '59 are members of the Honor Society. Others have assumed responsibility in various organizations, and all of them have been good followers and loyal classmates.
